Based on your reading of Campbell's Wesleyan Beliefs and S T Kimbrough, Jr.'s The Lyrical Theology of Charles Wesley, write an essay (between 7 and 10 pages, double-spaced) on how you see John and Charles Wesley functioning as Christian leaders in their very different ways of enunciating Christian beliefs. In what ways, including literary genres, did John Wesley and subsequent Methodist leaders expressed their most central beliefs? How did Charles Wesley's use of poetry express these central beliefs? How might Christian leaders today communicate consistent, centrally-affirmed beliefs and practices?
