Interns may collaborate on a project so they can learn from one another. Each intern is to work with their learning team separately on personal goals and on theological and leadership reflection. The clergy or mentoring partner may be the same person for both interns. The lay or site partner must be different for each intern. Provide information for each intern.

First intern:

Partner 1:

Partner 2:

Can all three members of the learning partnership attend one orientation session provided during the summer?  Yes  No

How will you form a learning partnership to work with this intern throughout the internship?

How will provisions be made for the intern to develop learning goals and to explore new areas of ministry?

Second intern:
